

The City of Pittsburgh's First Transportation Plan. Making places, connecting people.

The Pittsburgh Department of City Planning invites you to attend a

PUBLIC KICK-OFF MEETING

Why attend a public meeting for the MOVEPGH Transportation Plan?

- Because you spend almost 20 percent of your household income on transportation.
- Pittsburgh is the nation's most livable city and its transportation system should help to keep it that way.
- The plan will guide transportation decisions and spending for the next 25 years.
- Because it's YOUR transportation plan.

Where?

Building #3B (Porter Hall) off Frew Street on the Carnegie Mellon University Campus (Oakland). Please refer to the map below for location.

This location has nearby parking in Schenley Park as well as a high degree of pedestrian and bicycle access. The CMU campus is served by Port Authority bus routes 28X, 54, 58, 61A, 61B, 61C, 61D, 67 and 69 from Forbes Avenue.

When?

Thursday February 2, 2012, from 6 to 8 PM.

Other Questions?

Please contact the MOVEPGH team at patrick.roberts@pittsburghpa.gov.

Click here for more information on visiting the CMU campus.

MOVEPGH is a part of PlanPGH, the City of Pittsburgh's first-ever comprehensive plan, and is led by the Pittsburgh Department of City Planning. If you have special needs for attending this meeting please contact Patrick Roberts at 412-255-2224.

